

IL-NET

CIL-NET · SILC-NET

Youth Transition: The Growing Role of Centers for Independent Living

Summary Discussion: Importance of Involving Youth & Incorporating and Centering Youth in your Program Planning

April 20, 2017
Denver, CO

Feedback from Group

- What are your most important takeaways from this training regarding involving youth in your center's planning, operations, and programs?
- What steps will you take when you get back to start involving youth more?

Final Wrap Up

CIL-NET Attribution

Support for development of this technical assistance information was provided by the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Community Living under grant number 90TT0001. No official endorsement of the Department of Health and Human Services should be inferred. Permission is granted for duplication of any portion of this information, providing that the following credit is given to the project: Developed as part of the IL-NET, an ILRU/NCIL/APRIL National Training and Technical Assistance Program.