

IL-NET

CIL-NET · SILC-NET

Youth Transition: The Growing Role of Centers for Independent Living

Using Core Services as Springboard to Expansion Panel Discussion

April 20, 2017
Denver, CO

Presenters:

Kings Floyd

Sierra Royster

Seth Hoderewski

Kimberly Tissot

Joe Michener

Charlie Walters

Mary Olson

What are some ways you served youth with core services that you offered everyone?

- Systems and Individual Advocacy
- Peer Support/Peer Mentoring
- Independent Living Skills Training
 - Information and Referral

What are some ways you served youth with core services tailored specifically for them?

- Systems and Individual Advocacy
- Peer Support/Peer Mentoring
- Independent Living Skills Training
 - Information and Referral

Give examples of “next steps” a CIL can take to expand and grow current youth services/outreach.

What collaborations or partnerships have especially added to your youth programming either in outreach or program delivery?

How do youth consumers typically hear about or find your CIL? (Marketing)

What ONE tip do you think is most important for centers to grow their youth program?

CIL-NET Attribution

Support for development of this technical assistance information was provided by the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Community Living under grant number 90TT0001. No official endorsement of the Department of Health and Human Services should be inferred. Permission is granted for duplication of any portion of this information, providing that the following credit is given to the project: Developed as part of the IL-NET, an ILRU/NCIL/APRIL National Training and Technical Assistance Program.